

Building communities and fostering life skills through athletics is the mission of the Boston Hurricanes Athletic Club (BHAC) Youth Programs. Through our youth athletic programs, we provide boys and girls from Boston's Chinatown and its neighboring Asian communities core life values and skills to succeed beyond the playing fields. BHAC Youth Programs offer a number of structured programs in volleyball and basketball ranging from our basic and advanced skills clinics.

The Boston Hurricanes offer youths aged 11-18 opportunities to develop their basketball skills through year-round play, seasonal clinics, local and regional tournaments. Our staff has well over 40 years' experience as former players and coaches within the local metropolitan area as well as the national Asian circuit.

Seasonal Clinics

Our one-day clinics are offered for all ages, we focus on basketball fundamentals through station work and competition, with an emphasis on basic shooting, ball handling, and individual offensive and defensive skills. We group kids by skillset to ensure every participant has a meaningful experience.

Year Round Play

Our year round "open run" provides an outlet for kids to play regularly. In the summer, our Sunday Morning Hoops program spends a month in each of these cities: Boston, Watertown and Quincy. An hour is spent on skills and an hour is spent developing instincts through game playing. Our Fall/Winter Open Gym occurs every Saturday and allows kids to simply play, coaches are available for individual workouts.

Practices / Competitive Teams

For those ready for a higher level of competition, our organization enters Boys and Girls teams into local, regional and national basketball tournaments. Teams and Levels vary depending on availability. Tryouts and Practices begin in the springtime.

Tournaments of Interest

Dependent on the tournaments, teams are submitted based on age groups that include Under12, U15 and U18. The tournaments we have interest in participating are as follows:

Tournament	Location	Dates
Asian Basketball Championships of North America - Eastern Regional Canes	NJ/PA Boston	March 16/31 TBD
MASE Purple Showcase	Mansfield MA	July

Costs

Fees are collected to cover gym rental and tournament fees. Transportation to tournaments is not provided however the Club will help organize and provide information regarding hotel and any other notable item. Fund raising is also offered.
